NEWLANDS PASS, CUMBERLAND.

Cheetham Hill,
Manchester. May 26th
1909

Dear Sister,

The flowers ought to have reached Buxton and been delivered on Monday Evening, but they did not get there till 12.30 p.m. on Tuesday.

We have had more rain today. Showers on and off all day and I have been hoping you have had a similar experience as you needed rain and a lot of it.

Miss D Locker returns home on Friday.

I hope you are all well and all the live stock - bees included - doing well
